MYTHOS SWARM PLATOON

For one the likes of Nadir, true transcendence is not a carrot to be waved before the hare, but a reality. A believer in every sense of the word, Nadir seeks to cause chaos in the name of the Sacred Dawn wherever the gods will it.

Where once he played party to mortal concerns, now his body is more a vessel for those beyond his ken than his own, his mortal ending little more than a new beginning...a new dawn on the horizon.

PLATOON ADVANTAGE: OVERWHELMING SWARM

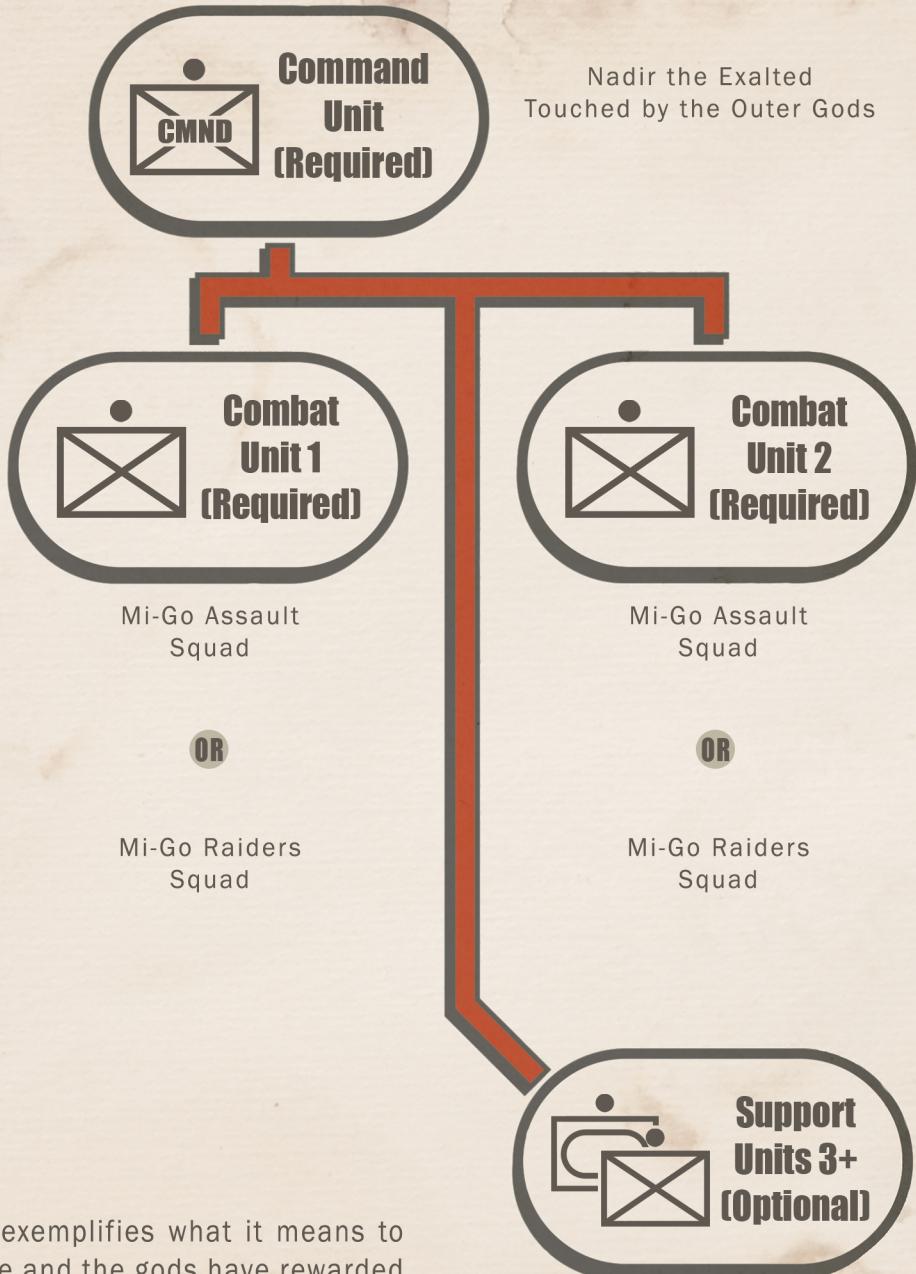

Never far from the action, Nadir exemplifies what it means to truly give oneself over to the cause and the gods have rewarded him in kind. With the blessings of the gods, Nadir and his Mi-Go compatriots take to the skies and swiftly smother their enemies much like a sandstorm smothers the lonely oasis.

Mi-Go units in or supporting this platoon gain the Scout skill.

SUPPORT UNITS

Nadir and his Mi-Gos are a formidable force that is both fast and well-armed, but they are not without number. The tried and true foot soldiers of the Mythos forces such as Cultist Saboteur Squads, Cultist Fire Squads, and Cultist Kill Squads are regularly called upon to draw not only the attention, but the fire of Nadir's enemies.

With the enemy distracted by the enemies within their midst, Nadir and his Mi-Gos are free to harry the enemy and drive them like lambs to the slaughter.
