SSU IVAN'S BERSERKERS PLATOON

Ivan Popov has spent his military career trying to answer the question of what happens when an unstoppable force meets an immovable object. In this case, Ivan is the unstoppable force. His body a patchwork of scars attesting to his combat prowess, Ivan Popov has done the stuff of legends on the battlefield. His sometimes suicidal heroics have saved the lives of countless fellow soldiers from the jaws of death and defeat. Because of this, men rally to the Butcher, willing to risk their lives for the chance to join him on his next heroic mission.

PLATOON ADVANTAGE: TOO ANGRY TO DIE

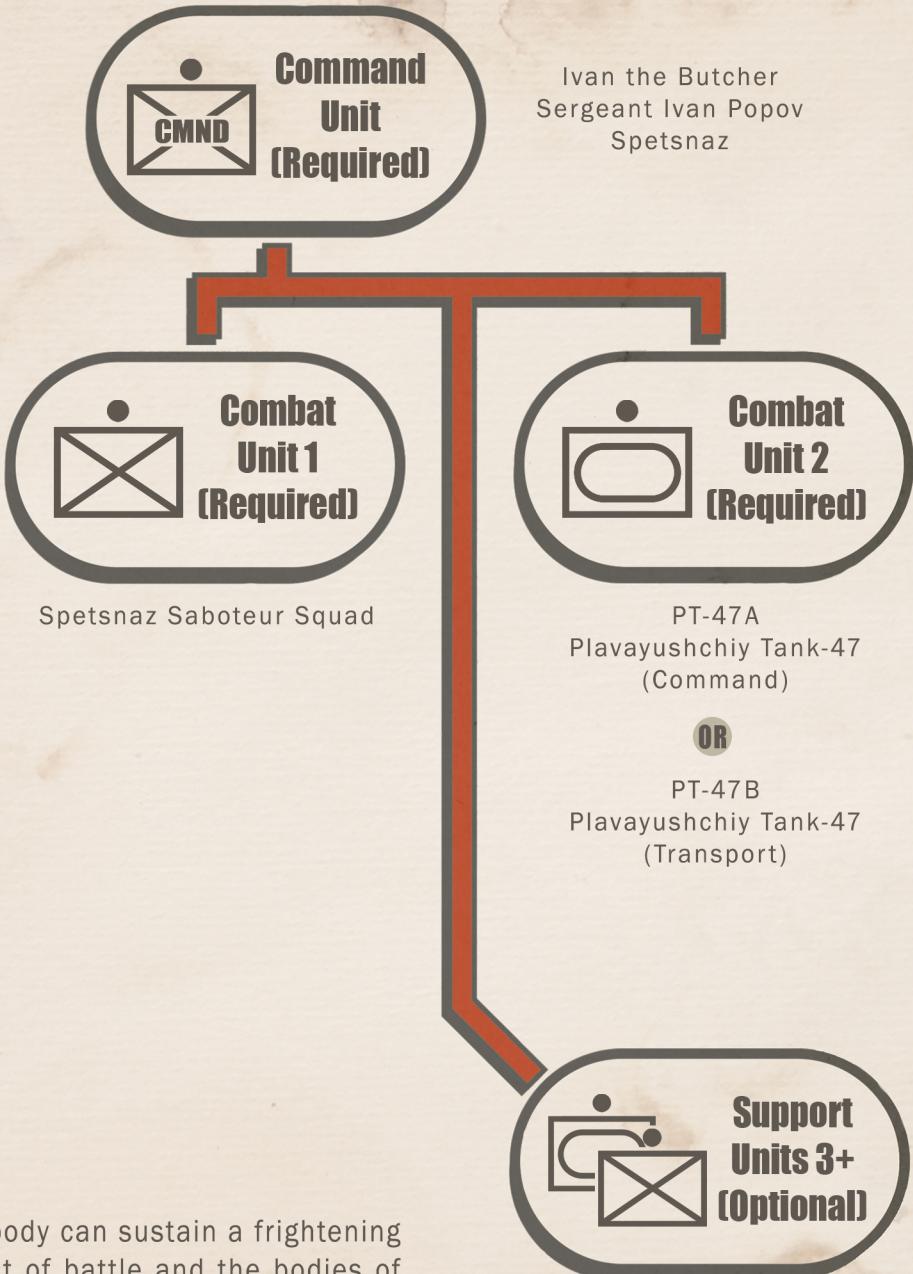

It has been said that the human body can sustain a frightening amount of punishment in the heat of battle and the bodies of Ivan and his men can corroborate this. Fueled by a hatred for those that would endanger the lives of their comrades, Ivan and his men shrug off injuries that would lay low lesser soldiers with ease.

When disembarking from a PT-47, Ivan and the Saboteur Squad he is joined to gain Damage Resilience until their next activation.

SUPPORT UNITS

Ivan's Berserkers platoon plays the hammer to the Spetsnaz sickle. While not meant to be the end all for SSU forces, this platoon can be an amazing force multiplier for an army. Similarly, Ivan's boys are called upon when a certain target needs to be removed sooner rather than later and with extreme prejudice.

Their transport of choice, the PT-47, trades armor for speed and agility on the battlefield. Given that the PT-47 lacks the fortitude of other armored transports, utilizing artillery support is key to making sure Ivan and his men get where they need to be.
